

07.04.23

WORLD HEALTH DAY

axastats

World Health Day

WHAT WE KNOW ABOUT OUR HEALTH

A total of 25 beds in December 2021 were available for hospital inpatients in Anguilla with an annual average bed occupancy of 33.19%

Source: Health Information Unit Annual Report 2021

Scaling is the most demanded dental service in Anguilla after Oral Hygiene Instructions (27.20%) contributing a total of 25.76%

Total Services : 7,027

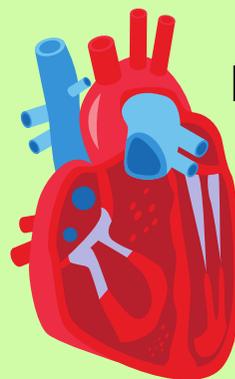

Source: The Health Authority of Anguilla Dental Services

Both colon and prostate cancer account for 16.00% of the 25 patients admitted with cancer

Source: Health Information Unit Annual Report 2021

After Pregnancy, Childbirth and the Puerperium, the Disease of the Circulatory System is the next primary condition of admissions to Princess Alexandra Hospital with a total of 96 persons

Hypertension is the single named illness that most of the population of Anguilla 8.22% indicated they are suffering from followed by diabetes with 5.41%

Source: Anguilla Population & Housing Census 2011, based on preliminary individual analysis data

The main underlying cause of death for 40.00% of males and 33.33% of females in Anguilla is the Disease of the Circulatory System

Source: Health Information Unit Annual Report 2019