

Mother's Day

14.05.23

axastats

Mother's Day [US]

WHAT WE KNOW ABOUT OUR MOTHERS

In 2001, our women in Anguilla were most fertile between ages 20-24

Source: Anguilla Housing & Population Census 2001

Over 50% of live births in 2017 were from mothers between ages 20-29, 74 live births out of the 142 live births

Source: Princess Alexandra Hospital

In 2022, there were a total of 125 live births; a 20.38% decrease from 2021 (157 live births)

Source: Judicial Department

A total of 56 mothers had Caesarian Section to give birth in 2008, an increase from 2007 figure of 17

Source: Princess Alexandra Hospital

In 2022, a total of 17 mothers gave birth in the month of November, this was the month with the highest number of births recorded 2022.

Source: Judicial Department

Three mothers gave birth in the month of May 2022; this was the month with the lowest number of births recorded for 2022

Source: Judicial Department